Print Solutions

We have an unrivalled strength in business forms, as well as a broad digital and colour print capability.

Design Solutions

We work with you to create products that meet your business needs, reflect your organisational and brand values, and which can be produced in the most efficient way.

E-commerce Solutions

Through our industry-leading ECOS solution we are able to provide you with streamlined and effective ordering systems. Your users can access supplies online through a highly customised interface, while you have control over spending levels and detailed, highly flexible reporting and management information options.

Strategic Sourcing

We have access to all other forms of print production through our network of suppliers and partners built up over many years in the industry. We can also integrate the sourcing of print with other highly distributed consumable products that may be required through your organisation.

Supply Chain Logistics

Complete supply chain services

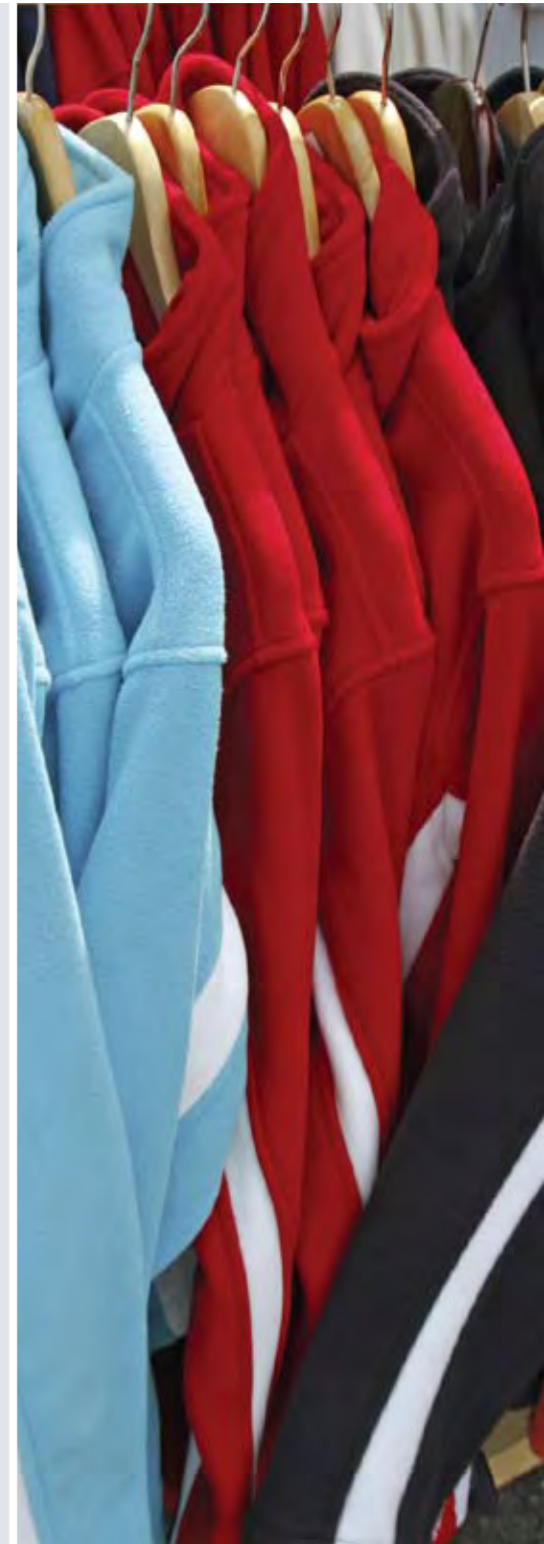

Wickliffe can help you with:

- receiving and checking the quality and quantity of inwards goods
- your network of computer-managed warehouses with facilities located in Auckland, Wellington and Dunedin
- easy ordering – either by phone, fax or e-mail, or order online using Wickliffe's electronic commerce online system (ECOS)
- turning your orders into your data and generating reports to meet your particular needs
- speedy picking, packing and nationwide delivery
- competitive courier and freight rates for same-day local and next-day national services
- inventory management through a dedicated inventory management team, supported by Wickliffe's comprehensive data management system
- customisable online reports to help you discover everything you need to know about your changing stock levels, fulfilment and distribution numbers, patterns and trends.

Managing special projects

Whether it's a one-off single product launch, running a nationwide competition, or acting as a clearing house for an entire professional organisation or industry group, the logistics are the same. For example:

- Wickliffe has a suite of purpose-designed services ready to be applied to managing:
 - your brand or product launch
 - merchandising
 - point-of-sale promotions
 - incentive plans
 - competitions
 - collateral production and purchasing
- Special add-on services for retail logistics such as ticketing, repacking, kit assembly and barcode labelling
- Running your competitions and give-away promotions from feasibility study through to prize distribution and presentation
- Managing your rewards programme or an ongoing incentive scheme, including level setting, prize selection and acquisition, catalogue printing, points collection and reporting, awards fulfilment and the events management of your awards functions.

A complete service in supply chain logistics from one supplier

Whether it's meeting the demands of your internal non-core supply chain, looking after your vital business-to-business distribution, or taking care of your consumers with the prompt, efficient and economic delivery and distribution they expect, Wickliffe can help with a complete range of supply chain services.
